

Frequently Asked Questions

Footsteps for Families – Home Sweet Home Edition is about raising critical funds to support RMHCSCO and also celebrates having fun, family moments together! As part of the campaign this year, we want to encourage everyone to have some RMHCSCO inspired fun each week. Be sure to join in the fun and remember to snap and share a photo of you completing each challenge for your chance to win great family prizes. We want to see your Footsteps for Families - Home Sweet Home Edition spirit!

How will I find out about the weekly challenges?

Every #FootstepsFriday afternoon, all registered participants will receive an e-mail outlining that week's fun, family challenge for you to complete with your family/team. You will have seven days to complete the challenge and share it with us (see the schedule below).

Can I join the challenges part-way through the campaign?

Yes – absolutely! Every Friday afternoon, a new weekly challenge will be sent out. If you sign up over the weekend, or into the following week, you will still receive details of that week's challenge so you don't miss out on the fun!

What if I've missed the first few weeks?

No problem at all - there are still more weeks of fun challenges to come! The program has been designed so that you can join in anytime throughout the seven weeks.

Can I see previous weeks' challenges?

Yes. Every Friday the previous week's challenge will be posted on our website – click HERE

How difficult are the challenges?

Our fun, family challenges have been designed so that they can be easily adapted for families of all ages and size. We encourage you to include your tiniest family members and even your four-legged friends! Please participate in the challenges in a way that best suits your family. Big or small – makes no difference at all – the most important thing is that you are creating fun moments together with your family, while raising critical funds for RMHCSCO.

What is included in the challenge?

Each week, we will provide you with a description of the challenge as well as tips and ideas on how to be creative with it and how you can fundraise that week using the challenge as inspiration. We will also include a few photos of inspiration – you may notice our Bobby the Bear joining in on the fun too!

Frequently Asked Questions - Continued

I noticed there are fundraising tips included – why?

We know that fundraising during this time may not look like it typically has in the past, so we will be providing creative ideas on how you can fundraise at home each week. Your family/friends will be motivated and encouraged to support you as they see your great efforts to complete each week's challenge!

Why should I submit my photos – are there prizes?

Everyone who shares their photo with us will be entered into that week's prize draw – for a great prize the whole family will enjoy! The draw will take place every #FootstepsFriday morning and winners will be notified that day.

Does our entire team need to be in the same photo?

We know that some teams include only immediate family members and others include a whole network of family and friends. We encourage everyone to practice safe social-distancing when completing our challenges. This means that some teams may have multiple photos submitted. Prizes will be awarded to the individuals included in winning photo.

How should I share my photo?

Please send us your photo through Facebook or Instagram private message. If you are unable to do that, you can e-mail it to Sherri Johnston at sjohnston@rmhcsco.ca. With your photo, please be sure to share your team name and the names of people in your photo. Photos are due by 11:59 p.m. every Thursday evening.

Will my photo be shared?

Yes. We will be sharing all challenge photos on our Facebook and Instagram pages to celebrate the excitement and share everyone's commitment to Footsteps for Families – Home Sweet Home Edition!
